"gone crazy" and was not caring for the animals properly.

Deputy Graham arrived to [redacted] Seville at approximately 1950 hours. Upon arrival, Deputy Graham knocked at the front door of the residence and contacted [redacted] opened the front door and told Deputy Graham he was "a demon," and began talking incoherently. [redacted] then shut the front door and retreated back into the residence. Deputy Graham heard [redacted] still talking inside the home, still incoherently, and stating law enforcement officers were demons. Deputy Graham started to walk away from the door, but due to [redacted] concerning behavior and statements, Deputy Graham shined his flashlight into the house through windows, still concerned for [redacted] well-being. When he shined the flashlight into a window along the front of the residence, he observed [redacted] on the staircase, inside the residence, holding a shotgun. When Deputy Graham's flashlight shined on [redacted] raised the shotgun and pointed it directly at Deputy Graham. Deputy Graham, in fear [redacted] was going to shoot him, fired his agency-issued firearm towards [redacted] through the window. Deputy Graham then ran for cover and waited for other units to arrive as backup. [redacted] remained inside the residence.

[redacted] behavior has been escalating over the last approximately 30-40 days. Per [redacted] acquaintances, he has been fasting, allegedly without food or drink, for approximately 40 days and has lost approximately 60 pounds.

[redacted] also turned off all the electricity and water to the residence for an unknown period of time.
