IN RE: PETITION FOR RISK PROTECTION ORDER
AGAINST {Name of Respondent} [redacted]

AFFIDAVIT

STATE OF FLORIDA
COUNTY OF VOLUSIA

I, {full legal name} Deputy Martha F Adamczyk, in my position as {job title} Deputy with the {name of law enforcement officer/agency} Volusia Sheriff's Office, swear and affirm that the following facts are true and correct.

1. {Name of Respondent} [redacted] poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself/herself or others by having a firearm or any ammunition in his/her custody or control or by purchasing, possessing or receiving a firearm or any ammunition. The following specific statements, actions, or facts give rise to a reasonable fear of significant dangerous acts by the respondent:

On 08/24/2026 at approximately 1736 hours, Deputy Adamczyk was dispatched to [redacted] Debary, to a suicidal person being reported by an employee of a business, which was not at the residence. Deputy Adamczyk called the reporting party, [redacted] and learned the male had provided his home address of [redacted] Deputy Adamczyk was told the male switched back and forth between sad and angry.

2 Additional pages are attached.

2. {Name of Witness} [redacted] provided the following information based on his/her personal knowledge:

[redacted] called the business (where he had no open account) and told call taker [redacted] that he "was going to off himself". [redacted] stated [redacted] seemed depressed and complained about his ex-wife before again stating he was going to kill himself. [redacted] comments and way of verbalizing caused her to fear he would follow through with his statement.

When the male's account could not be easily located, [redacted] attempted to hold a conversation with the male while she continued to try to help him. During this the male stated "I'm gonna off myself" and stated he had an ex-wife who caused him to be depressed. The male repeated he was going to kill himself to [redacted] told Deputy Adamczyk the male's statements and manner of speaking made her feel as though he would follow through with his comment of harming himself. [redacted] was not able to find any business account with the male and when she told him she could not find an account to help him, he became irate. [redacted] ended the phone call and called law enforcement because she believed the man was going to harm himself. [redacted] confirmed she had not had any previous interactions with the male. Deputy Adamczyk asked for any additional information which was provided by the male during the conversation, such as the male's name or how he might harm himself. [redacted] stated he might have said his name was "[redacted] but he had not made any specific statements about means while she was on the phone with him.

Deputy Adamczyk searched databases for previous calls for service at the residence and located [redacted] name. Deputy Adamczyk checked DAVID to learn what vehicles were registered to [redacted]

When deputies arrived at the residence, they knocked on the front door. Several attempts were made without a response. An additional louder knocking on the front door was completed. A short time later a male voice from inside the residence asked who was outside. Deputies responded the Volusia Sheriff's Office and requested the male to come outside. After a short pause, the front door opened and Deputy Adamczyk observed [redacted] with object in his right hand. Deputy Watlington ordered [redacted] to put the gun down. [redacted] stated "let me put the gun down" and then placed the gun back inside the residence. [redacted] complied with commands from the deputies as he was secured in handcuffs. Deputy Adamczyk explained to [redacted] that he was being placed under a Baker Act due to statements he made over the phone and upon contact with law enforcement he had shown he had the ready ability to follow through with his statements. [redacted] denied making any suicidal statements. [redacted] stated he had been on the phone with "the shutter company" when deputies arrived at his residence. [redacted] said his ex-wife or her sister was calling law enforcement to "get him in trouble".

Deputy Adamczyk explained to [redacted] neither his ex-wife nor her sister had called law enforcement and that due to his statements Deputy Adamczyk was providing [redacted] the opportunity to speak with a doctor/mental health professional and they would assess his mental health. While standing immediately in front of [redacted] Deputy Adamczyk could smell an unknown alcohol beverage coming from [redacted] mouth when he spoke.

The handgun which [redacted] had answered the door with was secured in Deputy Watlington's patrol vehicle.

[redacted] was asked about firearms which he owned and what firearms were in the residence. [redacted] stated he would walk with law enforcement through the residence and point the firearms. During the conversation about the firearms, [redacted] told the deputies they could collect the firearms. Deputies escorted [redacted] back inside the residence and [redacted] stated there was a handgun in the nightstand in the master bedroom. That firearm was located and collected. [redacted] then pointed out the gun safe in the bedroom closet. The safe was unlocked and the safe door was visibly open. The firearms and ammunition stored in the safe were collected by deputies. Deputy Adamczyk observed an empty large bottle of unknown alcohol on the dresser in the master bedroom.

See supplement completed by Deputy Watlington for complete list of items collected.

Deputy Adamczyk completed Law Enforcement Officer Initiating Involuntary Examination forms and transported [redacted] to Stewart Marchman Chett Bell Crisis Center without incident. Deputy Adamczyk completed a Risk Protection Order document and forwarded it to the appropriate authorities.
