[redacted] was traveling in his vehicle northbound on US Highway 1, just north of the I-95 overpass. There was a stretch of road that required merging due to construction right in this area. [redacted] expected it was his turn to be let into the merge and attempted to merge. There was a male on a three-wheel motorcycle who did not let him in. This led [redacted] to have a verbal argument with the male. The male then presented a "double barrel" handgun, which was pointed at [redacted]. The male kept the gun near his waistband but pointed it in [redacted]s direction. The male then put the handgun in a cup holder on the motorcycle. [redacted] took multiple photos of the motorcycle and its rider. [redacted] advised that he was afraid that he could be shot.

[redacted] completed a sworn written statement indicating he wished to pursue criminal charges. [redacted] completed a Marsy's Law form indicating he wished for his information to remain confidential.

[redacted] showed Deputy Hinson the photos he took of the motorcycle and rider. It was a 3-wheel motorcycle bearing Florida tag [redacted] The rider was wearing a black and orange t-shirt and several arm tattoos. In the cupholder of the motorcycle, it appeared that the butt of a derringer style pistol was visible. [redacted] emailed Deputy Hinson the photos which were later uploaded to Evidence.com.

Deputy Hinson found that the registered owner of the motorcycle was [redacted] (D1). Deputy Hinson contacted [redacted] by phone who agreed to meet at his home.

Deputy Hinson contacted [redacted] at [redacted] Port Orange. It should be noted that [redacted] was wearing the same shirt as seen in the photos provided by [redacted] [redacted] stated the following:

[redacted] was involved in a dispute with a motorist on US Highway 1 and I-95. [redacted] was in an area that was merging, and a male in a vehicle tried to cut in front of him. [redacted] advised that this caused an argument between him and the male about merging. [redacted] stated no weapons were involved but he did have a firearm on him. [redacted] advised he carries a derringer style pistol in .45 caliber. [redacted] was adamant that he never pointed the pistol at the male, but moved it from his pocket to the cupholder, as he felt the male driver was getting aggressive.

Based on the above, Deputy Hinson determined that there was probable cause to criminally charge [redacted] with aggravated assault.

[redacted] was placed under arrest and later transported to the Volusia County Branch Jail.

[redacted] and his wife, [redacted] (O1), advised that the pistol was on a nightstand in their bedroom. [redacted] signed a Voluntary Consent to Search form for her residence and walked Deputy Hinson to their bedroom to allow him to collect the firearm.

Deputy Hinson collected a Bond Arms derringer style double barrel pistol chambered in .45LC/.410 with serial number 90835. The pistol was taken to Volusia Sheriff's Office crime scene personnel to make safe due to the action being seized up. Crime scene personnel opened the action of the pistol and found it was loaded with 1 .45 Long Colt round and 1 .410 shotgun shell. The firearm and ammunition were later submitted to evidence.

Deputy Hinson requested a copy of [redacted]'s criminal history, which showed no convictions for any crime.
