BWC RECORDING
ALL VICTIMS INVOKED MARSY'S LAW

On October 17th, 2026, at 0822 hours, District 4 Deputies responded to the report of battery that had occurred approximately one hour prior at [redacted] Deltona. The victim, later identified as [redacted] (V1), called 911 while in Seminole County to report this incident.

Shortly after contacting 911, Deputy Woodin contacted [redacted] via the phone due to her location. [redacted] stated that she was battered by her mother at her home, located at [redacted] Deltona, with a baseball and threatened with a gun. This occurred early in the morning when [redacted] went into her room while she was still sleeping. Her mother was identified as [redacted] (D1). Her two children, identified as [redacted] a minor, (V2), and [redacted], a minor, (V3), were present during this incident and were threatened with the firearm also. After the incident, [redacted] fled the home and was traveling towards south Florida. Deputy Woodin implored [redacted] to meet with law enforcement, to which she agreed and traveled to the Oak Hill City Hall to meet with Deputy Emanuel to gather her statement and further information.

Based on the initial investigation and information provided to Deputy Woodin by [redacted] multiple deputies responded to the residence and created containment on the home. Upon arrival, Deputy Acosta and Sergeant Knight who were stationed near the front of the home observed [redacted]' stepfather exit the home, identified as [redacted] (W1). Deputy Acosta and Sergeant Knight issued verbal commands to [redacted] and he walked over to them. He was not secured in handcuffs and was held pending contact with [redacted] due to the potential that she was still armed. [redacted] was cooperative with deputies and called his wife who agreed to come outside and make contact with law enforcement. [redacted] exited the residence shortly after and was given commands to walk towards Deputy Acosta. [redacted] was then detained in handcuffs and escorted towards Deputy Woodin's truck.

Deputy Woodin spoke with [redacted] who was visibly upset and crying. She was read her Miranda Warnings and Rights from an agency issued card and stated she understood her warnings and would talk with Deputy Woodin. Post Miranda, [redacted] stated that she and her daughter have been having a lot of issues. [redacted] stated that her daughter has been telling a lot of lies about her and that made her very upset. [redacted] was in Tampa early this morning picking up her niece who was moving out of her residence. While in Tampa, [redacted] was informed by [redacted] that she was planning on going to Guatemala and leaving her children, [redacted] grandchildren, at home. [redacted] stated that [redacted] had done this before and told [redacted] not to leave her grandchildren alone or she would show her the pain that they went through the first time she abandoned her children. This caused a verbal argument over the phone between [redacted] and [redacted] then drove home from Tampa and went into [redacted] room and started a verbal altercation with her. This verbal altercation escalated to the point where [redacted] threatened to call law enforcement. This enraged [redacted] and she stated to Deputy Woodin that she told [redacted] she was going to give her a reason to call law enforcement. She also told Deputy Woodin she told her daughter that she was going to hit her. [redacted] then admitted to hitting [redacted] with a baseball bat and believed it was twice.

[redacted] stated as [redacted] was outside loading her vehicle to leave with her children, she exited the residence to retrieve a firearm that was inside her vehicle, in an attempt to scare her into staying. [redacted] said the gun was believed to be a 22 caliber but was unloaded. [redacted] stated she attempted to reenter the residence was then locked out of her home, and she began yelling at [redacted] to let her back inside the home or she would break into her own home. [redacted] believed her granddaughter unlocked the door, and she entered holding the gun. [redacted] stated that being locked out of her home own home triggered her. [redacted] believed at some point during the dispute, she struck [redacted] with the firearm, but because of her medications she could not remember the moment. [redacted] then went on to talk about historical issues between her and her daughter and how she moved into her home after losing her own after her divorce. [redacted] then stated when she got back inside, she told [redacted] that she was not going to leave with her children. [redacted] claimed that [redacted] does not have custody of the children, but when asked about this the children have been living with [redacted] for many months and their father lives in Miami. [redacted] made several statements that the firearm was allegedly unloaded during this incident. Deputy Woodin ended the interview by confirming that [redacted] did not want to hurt herself and that she did not consume an excessive amount of medication prior to being in contact with law enforcement.

During this interview, Deputy Stewart made contact with [redacted] who was not very forthcoming about him witnessing this incident. He did not provide any further information.

[redacted] made it to the Oak Hill City Hall and made contact with Deputy Emanuel regarding this incident.

[redacted] advised the following to Deputy Emanuel in a sworn written and verbal statement.

On 10/17/2026 at approximately 6:45 this morning, she was awakened by her mother screaming in her face. Her mom, [redacted] was upset because she believed her daughter was talking badly about her childhood. [redacted] stated a verbal altercation continued between the two of them for a short period of time about this topic. During this verbal altercation, her mother went upstairs without reason and returned with a baseball bat and began threatening that she was going to hit her with it. Due to the arguing, [redacted] found it best to leave and began packing her and her children's items into her car outside in the driveway of the home. [redacted] advised her mom continued to yell at her and remained armed with a bat while she was going in and out of the house collecting her items. [redacted] stated she walked in the house one final time to make sure she didn't leave anything important behind. As she walked in the door, her autistic son, [redacted] (V3), who was standing in the doorway, stated "Grandma has a gun" pushed [redacted] out the way and slammed the door shut on his grandmother to prevent her from coming inside the home. [redacted] did not believe her son, so she opened up the door and that's when [redacted] pointed a tan and black firearm in her face and began threatening her. [redacted] could be heard saying you're lucky your son is right next to you as she pointed the handgun at [redacted]

[redacted] at one point lowered the firearm which allowed [redacted] the opportunity to retreat into her room, which was right next to the front door. [redacted] put both of her kids in the room and stood at the front door to protect them from [redacted] continued to threaten and yell at her all while still being armed with a handgun and a bat. [redacted]'s daughter, [redacted] (V2) began video recording at this point. [redacted] provided a copy of this video to Deputy Emanuel which was later uploaded to Axon evidence. In the video you can see [redacted] strike [redacted] multiple times with a metal bat on her left arm. Eventually [redacted] is disarmed by her husband and [redacted] and her children are able to escape out the front door and drive to her brother's house nearby.

Deputy Emanuel filled out all necessary domestic violence paperwork. All videos and pictures gathered during this encounter were subsequently uploaded to evidence.com. [redacted] sustained injuries from being struck by the baseball bat and was unable to bend her left arm. EMS arrived on scene at a later time and provided [redacted] with a sling and ice. Deputy Emanuel observed that [redacted]' elbow was red and appeared swollen from this incident. Deputy Emanuel provided [redacted] with a case card and QR code with the victim's rights pamphlet and explained its contents, which she signed for.

Deputy Woodin was provided with a copy of the video recorded by [redacted] during this incident. Deputy Woodin viewed the video and observed the following:

The video is three minutes and twenty-seven seconds long. The video depicts [redacted] standing in front of [redacted] in the doorway to their bedroom, with [redacted] standing behind, not visible in the video. In front of [redacted] is her mother. In the video, Deputy Woodin can see clearly that [redacted] is armed with a tan pistol in her right hand and a black baseball bat in her left hand. [redacted] hits and pushes [redacted] with the bat and she retreats into her bedroom. [redacted] is yelling at [redacted] telling her she's not leaving the house. [redacted] is then yelling for her stepfather [redacted] who is now seen in the video near [redacted] The video progresses and Deputy Woodin observes [redacted] with the bat and pistol in her hands. [redacted] is telling [redacted] that she is going to "fuck her up too for lying". During the video [redacted] is heard pleading for [redacted] to let her and her children leave. Deputy Woodin observed [redacted] and her children are trapped in her bedroom, with [redacted] standing in front of the bedroom and in front of the front door of the home, blocking all egress from the residence by [redacted] and her children. Further into the video, [redacted] disarms [redacted] of the gun and takes it to a location outside of the video frame. [redacted] then comes towards [redacted] and uses both hands to hit [redacted] two more times with the bat on her left elbow. At the end of the video, as [redacted], [redacted] and [redacted] are leaving, [redacted] tries to grab [redacted] and pull her back into the home. [redacted] tells her not to grab her and [redacted] hits [redacted] with her fist on her face.

After watching a small part of the video referenced, [redacted] was secured in handcuffs in order to determine whether he committed any crimes after this incident, such as tampering with evidence or accessory after the fact. Deputy Woodin read [redacted] his Miranda Warnings and Rights from an agency issued card. He agreed to speak with Deputy Woodin. [redacted] stated that his wife had just switched medications for her bipolar disorder and there have been ongoing family issues between his wife and daughter. [redacted] stated that during the incident he observed [redacted] hit [redacted] with the baseball bat. [redacted] stated the firearm belongs to him and is kept in his truck, which is what [redacted] drove to Tampa. [redacted] stated that he keeps the gun unloaded in the truck. [redacted] stated he disarmed [redacted] and placed the gun somewhere in the home, but he was not sure where.

After [redacted] interview, it was determined that he was not complicit in this event and did not assist his wife after this incident. [redacted] was taken out of handcuffs and released from Deputy Woodin's patrol car. After being released and explained the situation, it was made known that Deputies intended to take the firearm and baseball bat involved in this incident for evidence. [redacted] stated he was willing to provide consent for deputies to search his home. A consent to search form was completed by Deputy Woodin and read to [redacted] stated he put the gun either in his room or back in the safe. If the gun was in the safe, he provided a passcode to the safe for deputies to locate the gun. Ultimately [redacted] was escorted inside the home to assist in the search for the gun as it was not immediately located and he could not recall exactly where it was. The gun was eventually located downstairs in the kitchen on the counter by Sergeant Knight. Next to the gun was also the baseball bat. Sergeant Knight collected both items and turned them over to Deputy Woodin who placed them into evidence.

Upstairs on the dresser was the magazine and an extra round for the firearm, which was identified as a Sig Saur M17 bearing serial #M17A088473. There were 12 rounds of 9mm ammunition located inside the magazine. These items were all seized as evidence and placed into a District 4 evidence locker for collection.

Based on his investigation, Deputy Woodin determined probable cause exists to charge [redacted] with the following crimes:
-Aggravated battery causing bodily harm for hitting [redacted] with a bat and injuring her elbow
-Aggravated battery with a deadly weapon for battering [redacted] with the baseball bat and admitting to striking [redacted] with the firearm
-Three counts of kidnapping for confining [redacted] and [redacted] with a deadly weapon and causing bodily harm to [redacted] and terrorizing [redacted] and [redacted] who are heard crying in the video
-Two counts of child abuse against [redacted] and [redacted]
-Three counts of aggravated assault with a deadly weapon for threatening [redacted] and [redacted] with a firearm
-Using a firearm during the commission of a felony.

[redacted] was placed under arrest for these charges. While in custody, she experienced a medical episode and was transported to Halifax Hospital, Deltona for medical clearance.

DCF was notified of this incident in real time by Deputy Campbell who received this information and is creating a case for them to investigate. Director Quann was notified of this incident and was forwarded a copy of this report for her review.

Deputy Woodin will be completing a risk protection order on [redacted] after completion of the arrest affidavit. This is a domestic violence incident as [redacted] is the mother of [redacted] and grandmother of ArM and [redacted] and they all live together currently as a single-family unit.
