---BWC RECORDING---

On 04/29/2026 at approximately 1928 hours, deputies were dispatched to [redacted] Deltona, in reference to a suicidal person. Deputies made contact with [redacted] (O1), who advised that she is the wife of [redacted] (V1).

[redacted] stated the 2 were in a verbal argument about [redacted] drinking habit. [redacted] stated that nothing physical occurred during this argument. During the argument, [redacted] stated to [redacted] that he was done and was going to end it, and then began walking towards the closet in the master bedroom, where he stores all his firearms. [redacted] returned with the case he usually keeps his pistol in. When [redacted] observed the case, she attempted to take the case away from him, fearing that [redacted] was going to harm himself using the firearm. [redacted] advised that [redacted] did not remove the pistol from the case in her presence. Deputies did not observe any visible injuries to [redacted] person at the time of this incident. At this time, [redacted] son, [redacted] contacted 911 for assistance.

When deputies arrived at the residence, they began calling out [redacted] and [redacted] who were able to walk out of the residence by the front door and were moved to a safe location. Deputies set up a perimeter around the residence and began making verbal announcements for [redacted] to exit the residence. After a short period of time, [redacted] complied and exited the residence. Deputies moved up to secure [redacted] who was compliant with commands. [redacted] was secured in handcuffs and placed in protective custody under a Baker Act; he was then placed in the rear of the patrol vehicle.

It was determined that without proper treatment, [redacted] would be a danger to himself. [redacted] was detained and later transported to Halifax Health, Daytona Beach, for further treatment.

Deputy Carroll collected 4 rifles, 1 pellet gun, 2 pistols, and more than 2000 rounds of ammunition of varying calibers and manufacturers. Due to the large amount collected, Deputy Carroll submitted all items to the Volusia Sheriff's Office evidence facility.
