HOSTED BY: VOLUSIA SHERIFF
MICHAEL J. CHITWOOD

Crisis Intervention Team

THIS CLASS IS FREE!

Crisis Intervention Team (CIT) Memphis Model Training is an innovation first-responder model of police-based crisis intervention with community, health care, and advocacy partnerships. CIT provides law-enforcement based crisis intervention training for assisting those individuals with a mental illness, and improves the safety of patrol officers, detention officers, consumers, family members, and citizens within the community. CIT is a program that provides the foundation necessary to promote community and state-wide solutions to assist individuals with mental illness. CIT provides a forum for effective problem solving regarding the interaction between the criminal justice and mental health care system; and creates the context for substantial change. CIT will improve officer and consumer safety and redirect individuals with mental illness from the judicial system to the health care system.
